This column brought to you by Amethyst's Recipe Collection

...while visions of sugarplums danced in their heads. It's Christmas time, the time of good cheer. A time for children and their excitement and anticipation of what Santa Claus will treat them with. The recipe cards for this month are chosen with the children in mind. Chocolate Sugar Plums, Christmas Macaroons, and a wonderful Christmas treat - Grandmother's Delicious Gingerbread.

And for those casual gatherings of friends and family a nice supply of little finger foods and dippers are just perfect. Angels on Horseback, Festive Roast Pepper Dip and Milk Chocolate Fondue are eye-pleasing and mouth-watering additions to any Christmas table.

MERRY CHRISTMAS
